FRIDAY MAY 14TH
STRANGE BEDFELLOWS

(100 min)

After reading about the passing of new tax law that would benefit same-sex couples, working class guy Vince (Paul Hogan) convinces his lifelong friend Ralph (Michael Caton) to file their taxes together. They assume they will easily get away with the ruse, with no one in their cozy, small town the wiser. But with a Tax Dept investigation, Vince and Ralph are forced to act out their ruse to avoid legal trouble— and adventures ensue....

FRIDAY JULY 9TH
KENNY

(100 min)

Classic Aussie humour. From the biggest festival to the smallest church social, Kenny Smyth delivers portaloos to them all. Part philosopher, part comedian and all heart, Kenny is one of the cogs in society's machinery; a knight in shining overalls taking care of business with his faithful 'Splashdown crew'. The film lifts the lid on one of Australia's roughest diamonds Kenny as he juggles family tensions, fatherhood and sewage with charm, humor and unflinching dignity.

FRIDAY JUNE 11TH
We hope to have
THE MARRIAGE OF FIGARO

(115min)

Fantastic, low budget comedy filmed in Adelaide. Fig, a bikie and piano tuner, is happily living with the mother of his 2 children. She, a romantic, wants to get married. A story about a bloke just trying to do the right thing by his lady— and how it can go wrong.

A dinky di, upside down romantic comedy as delightful as it is unexpected.

FRIDAY AUG 13TH
CHARLIE AND BOOTS

(102min)

Starring Paul Hogan (Charlie) and Shane Jacobson (Boots). Charlies wife has died. He wakes up to face a fridge full of casseroles delivered by well-intentioned friends and neighbours. Soon, Charlie is facing a sink full of dishes and spending his days in a darkened room watching TV. Boots the son who no longer lives on or helps run the family dairy farm, arrives one day and realising his dad is in a bad way, he does the only thing he can think of - he takes Charlie on a fishing trip to Cape York. The adventures, twists and turns begin...

All screenings start at 7.30pm in the Sanctuary, Riverdell Spiritual Centre, Clifford Road, off Hillier Road, Hillier, nr Gawler
