Ruth French began teaching over 40 years ago! She has had a varied life, including teaching in prison as well as classroom and bush settings, working with World Vision and in a Whole Health Clinic, and catering. Her spiritual journey, which is still unfolding, has seen her touch into many traditions. In recent years, Ruth has lived at Riverdell, the Emissary intentional community near Gawler SA.

Lyell Horwood brings her life experience as daughter, mother, sister, office manager and self-healer. With five years of sharing these Groups, she knows the deep energetic shifts that are possible when life's challenges are shared in a safe and sacred space.

Andrew Horwood has spent 16 years in a holistic medical practice in rural Victoria, where he developed his interest in the meeting of science with spirituality. After 30 years in medicine, he is now balancing this with a focus on matters of spirit and lives at Riverdell.

The Emissaries (SA) Inc is dedicated to allowing the transformative power of spirit to be known in all the moments of life. We serve by generating an inspiring environment and activities that encourage spiritual growth. It is affiliated with Emissaries of Divine Light International.

We also operate The Riverdell Spiritual Centre, a conference, workshop and retreat centre for small groups offering like-spirited activities.

What others have said

A great way to stay connected to others with the same values and spiritual beliefs. I was encouraged and supported through a range of ways that helped me to identify and gain clarification with any issues and hence be able to transform them. I highly recommend this. Deborah Crkovnik

Being part of this group has enriched my life and given me practical life skills that I use on a daily basis.

Jude Fenton

Lovely, relaxed, enjoyable. Mentally, emotionally and spiritually uplifting. An opportunity to reflect on Life growth and track our own transformations.

Di Goulding

It has given me more insight in so many ways. Colin Gatgens

My greatest learning has been my increasing trust in the Universe. I feel my trust increasing- replacing fear. Gini Gatgens.

Transformation Group

Transformation

Is a shift in how we experience the world. These shifts happen continually, often just beyond our notice. Any step we take in revealing our inner art is a step in transformation. This is the focus of this group.

Michelangelo said that inside every block of stone or marble is a beautiful statue- one only need remove the excess material to reveal the art work within.

What might happen if we chip away the stone in the way of our developing mastery in self-expression?

A Transformation Group

Is a group of individuals who meet regularly with the shared purpose of accelerating personal awakening and spiritual transformation.

Through the sacred act of sharing deeply what is our authentic experience, we naturally expand and transform. The longing inside to be all we can be, continues to nudge us forward.

This group provides an opportunity to foster your natural self-emergence in an atmosphere of appreciation and respect.

Come and see for yourself!

Fee

$30 for series

Format

Is simple, but powerful:

- Opening ceremony to create a sacred atmosphere
- A check-in on how awakening and transformation are occurring for you
- Personal Storytelling
- Consideration of inspirational material / experiential exercise.

General guidelines

For settings for awakening and transformation:

- Confidentiality - what's shared in the group stays within the group
- Be genuine with ourselves and others
- Keep to "I" statements. Only say what is authentic for you
- Appreciation - what's right with you is the starting point. What's wrong with you is beside the point
- Be respectful of time to allow all to share.

We look forward to sharing this unique experience with you.
