EMBRACING 2012

Are You Ready?

We have heard about it for years as the end of the Mayan calendar. What's it mean? It's a time of breakthrough in consciousness – in how we think and feel that will enable new possibilities for our lives. We are preparing to take our next evolutionary step forward together.

Within each of us, our Inner Spirit calls to us when there's a clear space internally. As we enter 2012, a time of major change,

- How ready are you?
- What is needed for you to create the inner space into which you can really welcome 2012?
- What needs releasing?
- What's your Inner Spirit saying?

We are calling those who want to consider these questions in depth through a combination of discussions, experiential exercises, ritual, fun activities and spacious contemplation.

Join us for five days of communion where we create a safe container for deep healing, relaxation, insights and creativity to emerge.

Major Seminar Themes

- Setting our intention
- Releasing what no longer serves
- Living in the unknown
- Embracing a new beginning— with your Inner Spirit—
